Visa Grant Fact Sheet

Yangha PARK

This information will help you understand your visa.

Checking your visa details

You can check and email your visa details and conditions at any time using the Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) system. To access VEVO, you can use the QR Code provided in the grant notice or visit www.border.gov.au/vevo

You will need to enter the following information:

- your Visa Grant Number or Transaction Reference Number
- your passport or ImmiCard information.

You can also check and email your visa details through the myVEVO mobile app.

Maintaining a valid visa

You have been granted an Australian visa. You must maintain your visa status and not breach your obligations while you are in Australia. You must hold a visa which has not expired to maintain your status as a lawful non-citizen in Australia.

Your visa has been granted for a specific stay period. The stay period is the period of time that you are permitted to stay in Australia. The period is between the date that you are legally entitled to enter Australia and the date that your visa expires. On or before the visa expiry date you will need to leave Australia or make other arrangements with us before this date. Failure to do this will mean your stay will become unlawful. If you think you will not be able to depart Australia by the date your visa expires, you should contact us as soon as possible.

For specific information about whether you are permitted single or multiple entries into Australia, the date of arrival and date of visa expiry, refer to your visa grant notice.

More information about the Community Status Resolution Service (CSRS) is available on our website at www.border.gov.au/csrs

Visa conditions

Your visa has been granted with limitations on what you can do in Australia. These limitations are known as 'visa conditions'. Visa conditions have a legal basis in the Migration Act 1958 and Migration Regulations 1994 and place restraints on your conduct when you are in Australia. Each visa holder must comply with the visa conditions as there are serious consequences for non-compliance. The visa could be cancelled after which you may be detained or even removed from Australia. It may not be possible for you to apply for another Australian visa in the future.

The following visa condition(s) apply to you.

Visa condition 8501

- Visa condition 8501 (student) applies to you. This means you must maintain adequate arrangements for health insurance (generally Overseas Student Health Cover) while you are in Australia. You must not enter Australia before your Overseas Student Health Cover has begun. You are not permitted to remain in Australia after your Overseas Student Health Cover has expired. If you are a student from Norway, Belgium or Sweden you may not need to maintain Overseas Student Health Cover.

More information is available on our website at www.border.gov.au/Trav/Stud/More/Health-Insurance-for-Students

Visa condition 8105

- Visa condition 8105 applies to you. This means that you must not engage in any work before your course of study commences. You are also not permitted to work more than 40 hours per fortnight when you are in Australia when your course of study is in session.

Note the 40 hour requirement does not apply if you are engaged in work that was specified as a requirement of the course when the course particulars were entered into the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students and the student visa was granted for a masters or doctoral degree.

Visa condition 8202

- Visa condition 8202 applies to you. This means that you must be enrolled in a full-time course and satisfy the course requirements of your enrolment including the course level, course progress and course attendance. Unless you are a Defence, Foreign Affairs or secondary exchange student, the course you are undertaking must be a registered course with the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS).

The course you are undertaking must give you a qualification from the Australian Qualifications Framework that is at the same level or higher level than the course mentioned in your grant letter. For further information about the Australian Qualification Framework go to www.aqf.ed.au

Visa condition 8303

- Visa condition 8303 applies to you. This means you must not become involved in activities that endanger or threaten any individual. You must also not become involved in activities that are disruptive to the Australian community or a group within the Australian community. You must also not become involved in violence threatening harm to the Australian community or a group within the Australian community.

Visa condition 8304

- Visa condition 8304 applies to you. This means you must use the same name to identify yourself in all official Australian identity documents issued by Commonwealth, State or Territory governments or government agencies. If you change your name, you must notify the change to all Australian government agencies (Commonwealth, State or Territory) that you have dealings with.

Visa condition 8516

- Visa condition 8516 applies to you. This condition means that you must continue to maintain your eligibility as a person who would satisfy the criteria for the grant of your visa.

Visa conditions 8517

- Visa condition 8517 applies to you. This condition means that you must ensure that adequate schooling arrangements are maintained for your school age dependants who will be in Australia for more than three months on the visa.

Visa condition 8532

- Visa condition 8532 applies to you. In general it means that you must maintain adequate accommodation, support and general welfare arrangements. You are not permitted to change those arrangements without the approval of your education provider. This should be in writing. You are not allowed to enter Australia before the date specified by your education provider.

Visa condition 8533

- Visa condition 8533 applies to you. This condition means that you must notify your education provider within seven days after arriving in Australia of your residential address (if you were outside of Australia at time of grant). In all cases, you are also required to notify them of any change to your residential address in Australia within seven days after the change.

If you intend to change education provider you are required to notify your former education provider within seven days after receiving an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) or other evidence of enrolment.

Visa condition 8564

- Visa condition 8564 applies to you. This means that you must not engage in criminal conduct during your stay in Australia.

Visa condition 8602

- Visa condition 8602 applies to you. This means that you must not incur an outstanding public health debt while in Australia. You will breach this condition if you do not pay, or make arrangements to pay, the health care facility where you have the debt. If you breach this condition your eligibility for future visas may be affected and your visa may be cancelled.

You will incur an outstanding public health debt if you receive public health care or aged care services in Australia, such as treatment at a hospital, and you do not pay the bill and the facility reports this debt to us. To avoid incurring an outstanding public health debt, you will need to pay your health or aged care bills on time or make an alternative payment arrangement with the facility.

Australian working conditions

Workplace rights

Pay rates and workplace conditions are set by Australian law. All people working in Australia, including those from overseas, have rights and protections at work. These cannot be taken away by contracts or agreements.

If you have questions about your pay and conditions while in Australia, you can contact the Fair Work Ombudsman for free information, resources and advice.

Visit www.fairwork.gov.au for information for visa holders and international students. This includes information in 27 languages. There are also a range of helpful videos at www.youtube.com/fairworkgovau about working in Australia in many languages.

You can also contact the Fair Work Ombudsman by phone within Australia on 13 13 94 (Translating and Interpreting Service 13 14 50).

Pay

Your minimum pay rate can come from an award, enterprise agreement or other registered agreement, or the national minimum wage. Employees have to be paid the right pay rate for all hours they work including training, team meetings, opening and closing the business and doing a trial shift.

National minimum wage

Certain employees may have different pay entitlements depending on whether they have a reduced work capacity because of disability, if they are under the age of 21 or if they are an apprentice or trainee. You can calculate your correct pay and entitlements using the Pay and Conditions Tool at www.fairwork.gov.au/pay

More information on employment in Australia is available on our website at www.border.gov.au and on the website of the Department of Employment at www.employment.gov.au

Tax file number

To receive an income in Australia, you need a Tax File Number (TFN). Income includes wages or salary from a job, government payments and income from investments.

For more information or to apply for a TFN online, go to the Australian Taxation Office website at www.ato.gov.au

Information pack on domestic and family violence, sexual assault and forced marriage

The Australian Government has developed a family safety pack with information on Australia's laws regarding domestic and family violence, sexual assault and forced marriage. The family safety pack also includes important information about essential services and emergency contacts in Australia. This information can be found at www.dss.gov.au/familysafetypack.

Character requirements

Entering or remaining in Australia is a privilege. You must obey the law and not engage in criminal activity.

Your visa may be cancelled for a number of reasons, including if you have a criminal record or behave in a way that is a risk to somebody in the Australian community.

More information is available at www.border.gov.au/about/corporate/information/fact-sheets/79character

Travelling to and from Australia

You must provide evidence that you have the authority to travel to and enter Australia, and/or remain in Australia by showing your passport or ImmiCard linked to your electronic visa record.

More information is available at www.border.gov.au/aboutyourvisa

Most countries have specific entry, exit and visa requirements. If you are transiting or exiting through another country, it is your responsibility to check with the relevant government authorities. The Australian Government cannot advise on other countries' requirements.

Update us

You are required to tell us about any changes to your details as soon as possible.

These changes may include your name, passport, contact details, address or family members.

If you do not notify us of your new details, this can have serious consequences for you.

You must do this in writing and can use Form 1022 Notification of changes in circumstances (Section 104 of the Migration Act 1958), which is available at www.border.gov.au/allforms
